TOURISM DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla-2, the 17th September, 1988

No. 3-76/86-TSM. (Sectt).—The Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make Himachal Pradesh grant of incentives to Paying Guest House Scheme, 1988, as under:—

1. Object of the scheme.—As a part and parcel of steps taken by the Himachal Pradesh Government for promotion of tourism, which has been declared as an industry in Himachal

Pradesh, the scheme for grant of incentives to private house owners who have some spare accommodation for letting out on daily or short term basis to visiting tourists is hereby framed

The scheme aims at utilising, by making certain additions/alterations in the existing houses, the available private accommodation in the State which is surplus to the requirement of the house owner/family. The objective on the one hand is creating opportunity for the household to have some additional income by way of letting out to tourists, the surplus accommodation and on the other hand providing cheap and comfortable accommodation in homely atmosphere to the tourists mainly the budget class tourists. For this purpose the existing surplus accommodation is required to have certain facilities like attached bath/toilets or some minimum furniture/furnishings for which purpose the Government intends to make available loan to the house owner from scheduled Commercial Bank at 4% rate of interest, the rest being borne by the Government by way of subsidy in the manner hereinafter specified.

2. Short title and commencement.—(i) This scheme shall be called the “Himachal Pradesh Incentives to Paying Guest House Scheme, 1988”.

(ii) This scheme shall come into force from the date of the notification.

(iii) These incentives are provided under the discretionary powers of the State Government and hence they do not create any claim against Himachal Pradesh Government enforceable in the Court of Law. It will be lawful for the Government to discontinue and/or amend/all or any of the incentives at any time.

3. Definitions.—(i) Paying Guest Houses.—Any private house in good condition and easily accessible at religious places, tourist resorts, villages and towns where more accommodation is in demand by the tourists will primarily qualify under this scheme. Further to qualify for grant of incentives as prescribed, the house, shall fulfil the minimum requirement of having minimum 5 rooms and a kitchen out of which at least 2 rooms shall be made available for tourists as paying guest accommodation.

(ii) Providing of catering facilities to the guests wherever required by tourists shall be binding on the host.

(iii) Accommodation.—Accommodation under the scheme would mean the rooms/accommodation which is surplus for letting out after fully satisfying the personal requirement of members of the household. Any accommodation under the scheme shall have to be of a minimum size of 100 sq.ft. for 2 beds accommodation and 60 sq.ft. for one bed accommodation. Such accommodation should also have regular water and electricity connections.

4. Improvements.—Improvements under the scheme shall mean and include the following :—

(i) Construction of extra toilets with water and electricity facility. At least one extra toilet would be required upto 3 rooms accommodation and two toilets for 3-5 rooms accommodation. The maximum amount of loan for this purpose would be 15,000/- for adding one toilet and Rs. 25,000/- for adding 2 toilets.

(ii) Providing furniture, beddings, furnishings and utensils. The maximum amount of loan for this purpose would be Rs. 5,000/-.

(iii) Infrastructural improvements like—

- (a) Renovation of premises.
- (b) Tiling/flooring/ceiling.
- (c) Reconstruction/extension of kitchen/dining room/sitting room.
- (d) Wire gauge doors, windows or ventilators.
- (e) Providing regular water supply.
- (f) Wash Basins etc.:

Provided that the maximum amount of loan for this purpose shall be limited to Rs. 20,000/- only:

Provided further that the total amount of loan for all purposes as enumerated at (i), (ii), and (iii) above shall not exceed Rs. 50,000/-.

5. Operation of the Scheme.—(i) Any proprietor/owner of a private house shall apply in the prescribed proforma (Annexure-I) to the S.D.M. concerned with one copy to the Commissioner Tourism, for assistance under the Scheme. The application, if found in order after scrutiny by the S.D.M., shall be forwarded under intimation to the applicant to the branch of the bank nearest to the applicant along with the recommendations of the S.D.M. for financing of the paying guest house, subject to a maximum of Rs. 50,000/- only.

(ii) The bank branch concerned shall take immediate steps to provide the loan as recommended subject to the usual provision regarding security/hypothecation etc. of the bank. The decision of the bank shall be communicated to the applicant within 30 days of the receipt of recommended application and the intimation thereof shall also be sent to the Deputy Commissioner concerned and the Commissioner Tourism.

(iii) The matter of implementation of this scheme shall be an item of agenda/discussion in the monthly meeting between the Deputy Commissioner and the banks where the details of pending cases along with the points of delay shall be discussed to root-out the problems. A quarterly return in this respect shall be submitted by the Lead Bank Officer of the District to concerned D.S. and the Commissioner Tourism.

(iv) In cases where the paying guest house has been advanced loan not exceeding to Rs. 50,000/- by a scheduled commercial bank, as a result of recommendations of the Committee, the concerned bank shall inform the Commissioner Tourism giving complete details of the loan advanced with a request to contribute the State share of interest liability. The bank shall in its record bifurcate the interest in two parts first of which shall indicate the liability of the loanee and the second, the liability of the State Government. The latter shall be payable by the Commissioner Tourism and the bank concerned within 15 days of the receipt of the demand. The bank shall also supply details of the repayment schedule so that the Commissioner Tourism can monitor the repayment of the loan and take steps to ensure its proper and timely repayment.

(v) The liability of the State Government under the scheme shall be limited to the differential between the normal lending rate of the bank and the subsidized rate of 4%. Any amount of penal/other interest on account of default in repayment or other such cases attributed to the loanee shall not be a part of the State liability and shall be recoverable from the loanee.

6. Responsibilities of the loanee under the scheme.—(i) Every paying guest house owner shall within a period of three months from the date of advancement of loan, bring about all such improvements which were stipulated in the case for advancing of loan and thereafter, shall inform the D.C. and Commissioner Tourism, about the improvements made.

(ii) Every paying guest house who has been advanced any loan under the scheme shall be registered under the Himachal Pradesh Registration of Hotels and Travel Agents Act (to be replaced shortly by Himachal Pradesh Registration of Tourist Trade Act, 1988) and shall be subject to the provision of the Act regarding periodic inspection/returns and maintenance of Visitors Book or other such record as prescribed by the Commissioner Tourism from time to time. The rates for board and lodging shall be fixed by the Government.

(iii) Paying guest house owner shall at all times maintain a minimum standard of cleanliness, sanitation quality of food, etc. The guest house owner shall at all times ensure the following:—

(a) that the utensils both for cooking and eating are kept absolutely clean;

- (b) that the place for washing utensils is different from that for washing hands etc.;
- (c) that there is a provision for evacuation of all smoke from the kitchen properly so that no smoke gathers into the actual eating area;
- (d) that all eatable are covered with wire gauge or otherwise at all times;
- (e) that proper drainage is provided for all waste water so that it does not stagnate in the vicinity of the guest house;
- (f) that the workers employed in the kitchen are medically examined at least once a year and certificate thereof displayed in the guest house;
- (g) that the furniture is not broken or dirty; and
- (h) that the premises white washed every year.

In case where the owner failed to bring about the stipulated improvements or allows the paying guest house to deteriorate the standard of accommodation/service/food/environs, the Department of Tourism shall be at liberty to withdraw the incentive apart from taking any other action under the provisions of the aforesaid Act.

(iv) The paying guest house owner shall submit an undertaking along with an affidavit to the effect that he shall continue to run paying guest house for a minimum period of five years after registration or till the repayment in full of the loan and interest whichever is later. Any failure on this account shall render the owner liable for such penal action as deemed fit apart from recovery of loan/interest as prescribed by law.

(v) The paying guest house owner shall be responsible for regular and prompt repayment of loan and interest as agreed to in the schedule of repayment.

7. Powers of drawal and disbursement and maintenance and accounts.—(i) The amount, out of the funds placed at the disposal of the Commissioner Tourism for the operation of the scheme shall be drawn in advance in two equal instalments first in the month of April or later and second in October or later or otherwise, if required earlier. The amount shall thereupon be deposited in a scheduled commercial bank and account thereof will be operated by the Commissioner Tourism. This would result in prompt and regular payment of State share of interest liability to the concerned bank branch on receipt of their demand.

(ii) The Commissioner Tourism, Himachal Pradesh shall have full powers to draw the amount from the treasury and remit to the concerned bank.

(iii) Commissioner Tourism shall submit to the Government a quarterly return indicating the progress of the scheme. The proforma for the same shall be devised by the Government and sent to the Commissioner Tourism, Himachal Pradesh.

8. Head of Account.—The expenditure on the implementation of the scheme shall be debitable to Major Head 3452—Tourism, 01—Tourist Accommodation, 190—Assistance to Public Sector and Other undertakings, 01—Subsidy for Hotels and Restaurants.

By order,
A. N. VIDYARTHI,
Financial Commissioner-cum-Secretary.
